

Mrs. X, say Mrs. Z, "Have you heard the latest news?"

Mrs. Z—"Why, what is it, dear?"

Mrs. X—"The Live Oak Brokerage & Commission Co. have on the road expecting it every day, 1,100 sacks of the Famous Snow Flake Flour, made in Nebraska!"

Mrs. Z—"I am so glad! Now, we can have good Biscuits and Bread again."

Mrs. X—"Me too, dear, their add will show the day it arrives and my Grocer will sure have to send me up a sack. A little high in price, but—"

What He Needed.

A father recently received the following note from a young man:

Dear Sir—Wood like your doted Jessie's hand in marriage. She and I are in love, and I think I need a wife. Yures.

HENRY.

The father replied by letter, saying:

Friend Henry—You don't need a wife. You need a spelling book. Get one and study it for a year. Then write me again.

Should Help Himself.

"Yes," young Mr. Timmid admitted; "I've always been bashful among the girls."

"But why should you be?" asked Miss Yern encouragingly.

"I can't help myself."

"Gracious!" she exclaimed, pursing up her lips. "If you don't help yourself, how can you expect to get any?"

Speculation.

Experience proves that those who gain money rapidly by speculation almost never keep it, and when they have lost it they are infinitely worse off than they were before.—Success Magazine.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it is, in fact, the popular and most thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation.

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

"WHO FILLS MY PRESCRIPTION DAUGHTER?"

is a natural question on the part of a physician anxious for his patients' welfare

Answer: The City Pharmacy and note your doctor's satisfaction. Why? Because he knows how careful we are as to purity of ingredients and exactness of compounding.
